

CRIMINAL DOCKET WILL BE REACHED EARLY THIS WEEK

Last of Civil Cases for Trial by Jury Will Be Taken Up by District Court Tomorrow Morning.

The last case on the civil docket for trial by jury at the March term will be taken up by the district court tomorrow.

Two days have been set aside for the trial of this case and then the criminal docket will be begun.

If all the men indicted by the grand jury are tried the criminal docket will be long as criminal dockets go. However, the majority may plead guilty upon arraignment, lessening the number of cases to be heard. At the last term not a single criminal case went to trial.

The case of Moises Savador against the Torres brothers, publishers of El Defensor del Pueblo, of Socorro, went to the jury late yesterday afternoon.

Judge Hernandez instructed the jury to return a sealed verdict provided it came to an agreement during the night. Tomorrow the case of Frank Ben against the Victor American Fuel company will be started.

Mrs. Pratt Wants Divorce.
Mrs. Beatrice M. Pratt filed suit for divorce yesterday. She charges her husband, William J. Pratt, with cruel and inhuman treatment and non-support. They were married October 1, 1910, at Bakerfield, Calif., and lived together until November 15, 1913, according to her complaint. The last known residence of her husband was in Bakerfield, Mrs. Pratt said.

The Meyers company brought suit against A. Chavez & Sons, of Jemez canyon, asking judgment for $46,522, alleged to be due on a bill. The Meyers company was granted judgment for $168,500 and costs against Bert Beagle, of Magdalena, on a bill.

FATHER AND SON ARE HELD IN LOS ANGELES ON CHARGE MADE HERE

Chief McMillin was notified yesterday that Jacob Brown and Max Brown, his son, were under arrest in Los Angeles. They are charged here with embezzlement.

The notice came from Acting Chief Flammner, who succeeded Chief Sebastian pending investigation of charges against the latter official.

Harry Polasky, owner of a cleaning and pressing shop on West Silver avenue, filed complaint against the Browns last week with Justice George H. Craig. He gave the older Brown $100 to buy second hand clothes for him and later gave $25 to the son to send his father, according to Polasky's attorney, E. W. Moore. Later both Browns left he stated, Polasky told Chief McMillin last night that Brown had taken seven suits belonging to him.

Assistant District Attorney H. B. Johnston began legal steps to bring the Browns back.

The high school auditorium was crowded last night for the Spanish play "La Muñeca del Callejón" given by the high school students. The greater part of the audience was made up of Spanish-Americans and because of their appreciation Superintendent John Milne said another play probably would be given.

The first Spanish play attempted by the high school.

Miss Bertha Russell, who was to have taken the part of Innocencia, was taken ill with chicken pox yesterday and could not take her part.

Margaret Dixon, teacher of Spanish in the high school took the part.

MISTER SQUEEGEE OUT FOR THE LADIES

Diamond Tire Illustration Is Put to Unique Use by Pennsylvania Suffragist.

"Mister Squeegie," the quaint figure used in Diamond Tire advertisements, has joined the ranks of the equal suffragists.

Mrs. Anna Davis Chisholm is vice chairman of the Equal Suffrage Association of Huntington, Pa. Recently Mrs. Chisholm clipped from a Huntington newspaper advertisement, a picture of Mister Squeegie, which was pasted upon a piece of yellow paper—yellow being the usual suffrage color—and beside it the lady wrote this declaration of principles:

"Let 'em vote."
"I've got my umbrella, so it can't hurt me."
"If they help make—"
"Better Roads,"
"Better Schools,"
"Better Laws,"
"Better Food,"
"Better Homes—"
"Let 'em vote."
"It may help me."

The picture and Mrs. Chisholm's comments attracted a great deal of attention, and are reported to have caused a number of Huntington men who formerly opposed equal suffrage to decide that "there may be something in it after all."

LEAGUE ALREADY HAS MADE RECORD FOR GOOD WORK

Splendid Results Achieved in Relief of Distress by Movement Recently Inaugurated by Citizens.

That the Civic Betterment league, on the charitable side of its work, is justifying its existence is abundantly shown by the record of cases in the office of the league in the city hall. Thus far about fifty cases have been handled, and they include everything from comfort and advice to assuming responsibility for all the problems of a stranded family, rent, fuel, food, employment and medical care.

One of the pathetic cases handled the past week was that of an industrial health seeker from Kansas City. He had made his way from county to county as an object of charity, and was sent down here from El Paso, Texas, where he had friends, and was sent down here from El Paso, Texas, where he had friends, and was sent down here from El Paso, Texas, where he had friends.

One of the methods which has brought gratifying results, and which is found applicable to quite a few of the "case" cases arising in this city, is getting a line on the applicant's relatives or friends, and putting the responsibility of relief up to them. A number of cases have already been successfully handled in this way, saving many dollars to the league's treasury.

Adequate Support Needed.
Several things the league would like to keep before the people of Albuquerque. First, the need of more adequate support. Every man, woman and child in the city may help in its work, if only by paying the fee of one dollar for membership. Secondly, that miscellaneous aims giving should cease, and all cases be referred to the office of the league, so as to prevent overlapping and imposition as well as to secure thorough investigation as to need and worthiness. And, thirdly, that in the housecleaning season—discards should be turned over to the league to be put to good use, if not now, then certainly next winter. A downtown storehouse has been prepared to receive donations, which will be called for if notice is phoned to the office. There is special need for men's clothing.

In the absence of Secretary Weir, Mr. E. P. Schuler is keeping the office hours and looking after the work. The hours are 10 to 11 a. m. and 4 to 5 p. m. The phone number is 33.

NEW CHURCH EDIFICE PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

The new church in process of construction is the all-absorbing theme of conversation and the incentive to earnest effort in the parish of the old and Broadway Christian church. The various societies of the congregation are planning a series of musical affairs at afternoon teas that will do much to the benefit of this worthy cause. The church walls are taking on outlines that promise a handsome structure, modern and commodious.

The edifice of red pressed brick, concrete and stone, with a large, basement foundation of poured concrete, will open through a vestibule entrance on the corner of Broadway and Gold avenue. In the spacious basement that has been pointed out, one of the most commodious in the city, will be seven class rooms ranged about the dining hall in the center. A well equipped kitchen, toilet room, furnace space, will occupy the ends of the basement. The main floor, eighty feet deep by fifty feet wide will contain a lecture room separated from the auditorium by rolling walls. The auditorium with sloping floor that will seat 200 persons, will be fifty feet square.

From the rostrum will open rolling partitions that screen the baptistry, from which open two robing rooms. The minister's study will occupy the southwest corner, and will have an outside entrance on Gold avenue. A fireplace will be a feature of the minister's study.

Already plans are being made for dedication service of the building. The first week in September, although the congregation expects to be using the building by July 1 at the latest date. The state mission worker, Dr. Rice, will be the city next week. A lot of the congregation on this and other projects, next Friday evening.

Professor Conway Has Enrolled 700, Not Including Boys and Girls of Bernadillo Who Will Join.

When Prof. W. T. Conway, who is state leader of the boys and girls club department of the State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, reached Albuquerque last week, he had enrolled 700 boys and girls for this year's contests.

The number was greatly increased after he visited the county and city schools in company with Supt. John Milne and Supt. Atanacio Montoya. Enrollment will continue until June 1, when it will be closed.

Six contests are to be held this summer—field crops, gardening and canning, pig and chicken raising, cooking and sewing. With the exception of the field crops and pig raising contests are adapted to city conditions as well as country.

DRAMA OF THRILLING INTEREST AT CRYSTAL

At the Crystal theater this afternoon, Robert Warwick will appear in the five-part photoplay, "The Man Who Found Himself," based upon George Broadhurst's successful drama "The Man Who Found Himself," also called, at the time of its production, a few years ago, "The Coward."

The story is as follows: James Clarke, young cashier, robs his employers in order to provide medical attention for his sick, ailing mother. She dies and a fellow employee of Clarke's discovers his theft and black-mails him. Both are eventually found out, prosecuted and sent to jail.

By a series of chances, Clarke escapes from jail, gets a job, is carrying an honest living and has won the love of a girl whose life he saved.

Payton, his fellow thief, after serving his full sentence, discovers Clarke and once more blackmails him, attacking the girl, and his wife, and her brother and taunting Clarke with cowardice.

From this terrible situation Clarke escapes by voluntarily returning to jail to serve the remainder of his sentence.

He has "found" himself. He knows that when he finally leaves the jail, Catherine, who has promised to be his wife, will be waiting to help him start life afresh.

BICYCLE CHAMPION, STABBED IN HEAD WITH A SCREW DRIVER, DIES

NEWARK, N. J., April 17.—Floyd A. MacFarland of San Jose, Calif., general manager of the Cycle Race Association and one of the most widely known bicycle riders in the country, received a fractured skull and other injuries about the head which proved fatal, in an altercation with David Lantingberg, a confederate dealer in the Velodrome here late today. Lantingberg was arrested.

MacFarland, who was manager of the Velodrome track, objected, it is said, to a number of signs which Lantingberg, who has a confectionery concession in the building, had placed over his stand. A heated argument ensued which resulted, according to witnesses, in Lantingberg stabbing MacFarland in the head with a screw-driver.

MacFarland, unconscious, was hurried to a hospital, where it was found that he had a fractured skull and that the steel had penetrated his brain. He died without recovering consciousness.

MacFarland has had the distinction of winning nearly every bicycle event from a quarter of a mile dash to a six-day race. He was teamed as a winner in three different six-day races in Madison Square Garden, New York. His last appearance on the track was at New Haven, Conn., in 1911 when he won a two-mile race.

Rev. H. L. Yarger, of Atchison, Kan., secretary of the Lutheran board of church extension, will speak at St. Paul's Lutheran church tonight.

Dr. Yarger is returning from the Pacific coast, and will divide his time today between the churches at Belen and Albuquerque. He and Mrs. Yarger will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Schuler while in this city.

FROM THE VALLEY OF THE MISSING AT THE PASTIME

This Great All-star Cast, Headed by Jane Miller, and Regarded as One of Best Productions, Should Be Seen.

An all-star cast headed by Jane Miller, daughter of the state treasurer of Missouri and formerly leading woman with the mammoth production of "Life" at the Manhattan opera house, New York City, is seen in "From the Valley of the Missing," a picture version of Grace Miller White's world-famous novel, made for the Fox Film Corporation, William Fox president.

The picture, which is produced by Frank Powell, calls for artists of unusual ability. Ordinary "motion-picture" actors would have been utterly unable to cope with "From the Valley of the Missing." People of exceptional ability therefore had to be engaged for the picture.

June Miller plays Ann Shelington with great charm and distinction and all the great ability she displayed in "Life," a performance which was acclaimed by the press of the metropolis. Arleen Hackett contributes a wonderfully powerful character study as "Serena," the unfortunate woman of the river, the poor forlorn creature whose life is one long tragedy. Miss Hackett starred in "Today" and other big productions and is an actress of an ability which David Belasco, in several of whose greatest productions she has appeared, declares is distinctly out of the ordinary. "Serena" is a very important part in the drama and Miss Hackett rises fully to the requirements of the role. The Tobin Twins, Genevieve and George, the cleverest juvenile actors in the country, are cast for Flea and Flunkie, the two twins, about whose identity much of the interest of the play centers.

Clifford Bruce, well known for his work in the Fox productions of "A Fool There Was" and "The Children of the Ghetto," enacts the character of Floyd Vandecar, the father of the children; he is ably seconded by Katherine Calhoun as the governor's wife. Mrs. Croft, the square jawed, the capable Bailey as Everett Brimblecomb and Gladys Peck as his wife and Robert Cummings as Lem Crabbie also do splendid and effective work.

At the Pastime theater today and tomorrow. Admission, 10 cents; children, 5 cents.

CHILD'S TONGUE
BECOMES COATED
IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach ache or diarrhoea. Listed.

Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. How to Fight Tuberculosis
In a paper read last year before the Bexar County Medical Society and published in part in the Louisville "Medical Progress," Dr. J. W. Cahart, of San Antonio, Texas, a physician who has devoted much time to the study of tuberculosis, said: "Since time immemorial three-fourths of all the mineral substances of the human body, they must be supplied in the food or supplemented in mineral preparations, or natural starvation ensues with tuberculosis unchecked. The widespread and unchecked spread of tuberculosis and other preventable diseases is due largely to the deficient (time lacking) conditions of multitudes throughout the civilized world."

Thus from another authoritative medical source comes justification for the use of time in the treatment of tuberculosis.

Since this is one of the ingredients of Ekinum's Alternative, much of the success attending the widespread use of this remedy is due to the combination of this salt in such a way as to render it easily assimilable. It causes no stomach disturbance, and since it contains neither opiates, narcotics nor habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try it.

Ekinum's Alternative has effected remarkable results in numerous cases of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption) and allied chronic affections of the throat and bronchial passages. In many instances such conditions, apparently, have yielded completely to it.

In order that a druggist is out of it, ask him to order, or send direct to us.
